

H.G. Strickland

H.G. Strickland is a highly motivated and passionate pursuer of success for the people around him. His passion for the Kingdom of God permeates everything he does as he is driven to see the reality of 'His Kingdom come and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven'. He serves as an apostle inspiring and equipping men and women to function in their God given gifts and calling, planting churches, launching ministries, and raising up leaders in multiple ministry networks across denominational lines. H.G. has a B.A. in Theology, a M.A. and Doctor of Ministry from Vision Christian Bible College & Seminary, where he serves on the national board, is the Director of International Operations, co-chairs the Department of Ministry and is a mentoring professor in the Master and Doctoral Programs. Although he leads the ministry team at Restoration Church in Defiance, Ohio, his impact extends beyond the local church into multiple spheres of influence. He is a director of Apostolic Team Ministries International and is a founding director of Kingdom Leadership International. H.G. is currently leading numerous projects and working with effective strategic partnerships to advance the Kingdom around the world. His abilities have been recognized beyond religious circles as businesses, charitable organizations, private foundations and individuals have sought him out to consult and even serve in an executive leadership role. The revelation he brings empowers people to move in the supernatural in everyday life and is transforming people in the marketplace and even on Capitol Hill. He travels extensively throughout the United States and internationally and is married to the love of his life, Chaley and together they have two boys, Tristan and Gavin.
