

Dr. Melodye Hilton along with her husband, Steven, pioneered Giving Light Christian Fellowship in Elizabethville, PA in 1982 with a heart to see believers of every age activated and equipped to fulfill their destiny through the development of their calling and character.

With a passion for the young, even babies, Melodye was instrumental in the development of Who's Teaching the Babies Infant Curriculum and Equipping Tools that has been planted worldwide establishing identity and destiny into the lives of infants and toddlers www.WTTBabies.org.

Melodye is an author who has also founded Double Honor Ministries making available her resources on overcoming shame, which includes her book, Double Honor: Uprooting Shame in Your Life, her Teaching Equipping Tools, and multiple audio teaching series. Her book and equipping tools have been translated into Spanish and are being distributed throughout South America, Central America, Mexico, and the United States. She recently has been a contributing author in Roads to Reformation: Proven Models and Methods in Oct. 2012.

Melodye Hilton is a behavioral analysis and leadership consultant. www.DrMelodye.com Her years of leadership experience, development of training materials, and human resource consulting has provided her with a unique and personal approach in coaching individuals and workgroups. This has opened doors for leadership consulting within business, not-for-profits organizations, government, and the educational system worldwide.

In 2002 she established the International Training Center for the development of potential young leaders nationally and internationally. www.GoITC.org its vision is to teach, equip, and activate young leaders for platforms of influence for Kingdom purposes.

She has established the Voice of Justice Foundation www.DrMelodye.com/voiceofjustice to provide national and international scholarships for potential young leaders to receive training, aid in the rescue and care of orphans and children in developing nations, and partner with other not-for-profit organizations to impact a generation with hope, vision, and purpose.

She has traveled extensively both nationally and internationally where she has challenged believers, business people, governmental leaders, as well teachers and students in the educational system to be instruments of justice.

Dr. Melodye holds her ordination through Christian International, under the covering of Bishop Bill Hamon; and serves, with her husband as apostolic oversight for ministers and churches in the Christian International Apostolic Network within the Mid-Atlantic Region.
