

Dr Peter Norman bio

Peter Norman leads Government Affairs and Policy for Alkermes, a global pharmaceutical company. In his current role, Mr. Norman leads the Washington Office as its head lobbyist and serves on the company's Management Team. Prior to joining Alkermes in 2013, he was the head of the Washington, D.C. office for Eisai, Inc. In addition, he's held senior positions for Amylin Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Millennium Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Novo Nordisk, the Biotechnology Industry Organization (BIO), and for a Member of Congress.

Peter received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Adrian College in Michigan and a Juris Doctor from the University of Toledo College of Law. He has also been ordained as a Minister through the ACTS Foundation.

In his current capacity, Mr. Norman also spearheads a ministry on Capitol Hill known as Work is Worship. During his typical work day, he engages Members of Congress, Hill and Administration staffers and others in the government to advance the Kingdom of God. God called Pete in his current assignment on Capitol Hill to declare to the government that each person is "here for such a time as this" as long as they understand their identity, authority, and power in the Kingdom.